

The document shredding service is provided at the end of each long semester. Greg Browning will send out an email to inform you when the shredding bins will be available. You will have one month to place any class-related documents in the bins for secure shredding.