

Human Development and Family Sciences Summer 2014 Course Offerings

HDF f304

Course Description: First summer session, 90335

Attraction, Love, Dating, Marriage, Deciding to Have Kids, Parenting, etc.. Why Wouldn't You Take This Class?

Description: FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS, teaches you the process of family interaction over the life cycle. We will apply research findings to the understanding of relationships. SAME AS WGS 301 (TOPIC 4).

Time: M-F, 9:00-10:30 am

Location: CPE 2.218

HDF s312

Course Description: Second summer session, 90495

The Science of Management, Define and Design Success

Description: FAMILY RESOURCE MANAGEMENT, teaches you to meet family and life demands with management concepts and theory in resource allocation. Prerequisite: Credit or registration in HDF 304.

Time: T,W,Th 1-3:30 pm

Location: NOA 1.126

HDF f313

Course Description: First summer session, 90340

What role does your family play in the person you are now?

Description: CHILD DEVELOPMENT, uses family context to describe childhood development, incorporating motor, language, cognitive, social, and emotional development. SAME AS WGS 301 (TOPIC 5).

Time: M-F, 11:30-1:00 pm

Location: CPE 2..210

HDF f378L

Course Description: First summer session, 90400

Learn different views about how people grow and change over their lives.

Description: In HDF 378L, THEORS OF CHILD & FAM DEVEL, we will survey classic and recent theories of human development, comparing and evaluating the breadth, accuracy, precision, and utility of these theories. Prerequisite: Upper-Division Standing; HDF 313, 113L, and 315L with a grade of at least C- in each; and three additional semester hours of upper-division coursework in Human Development and Family Sciences with a grade of at least C- in each course.

Time: M-F, 12:30 - 2:00 pm

Location: NOA 1.116

HDF s340

Course Description: Second summer session, 90500

What are the ethical and philosophical issues related to working in a human development and family sciences field?

Description: ETH/PHIL/PROFSNL DEVEL ISSUES Restricted to human development and family sciences majors. Explores ethical and philosophical issues; personal values and choices; professional development and leadership; and career goals, opportunities, and challenges as they relate to human development and family sciences.

Prerequisite: Upper-division standing and Human Development and Family Sciences 312 with a grade of at least C-.

May be counted toward the ethics and leadership flag requirement.

Time: T, W, TH 10:30 - 1:00 pm

Location: CPE 2.204

HDF f378K

Course Description: First summer session, 90395

Watch Movies. Learn about the Science of Relationships. Who Said Learning Isn't Fun?

Description: RELATIONSHIPS IN FILM In this course we will use films (mainstream and obscure, including documentaries) as a "lab" to assist in better understanding the science of human behavior and relationships.

Course number may be repeated for credit when the topics vary. Concepts, theories, and issues in human development and family sciences.

Prerequisite: Six semester hours of upper-division coursework in HDF (or child development), anthropology, education, psychology, sociology, or social work, and consent of instructor.

Time: MW 2:00 - 4:30 pm

TTH 2:00 - 3:30 pm

Location: NOA 1.124

